

Financial Aid Workshops, Fall 2008

Any interested current or prospective student may attend one or more financial aid workshops.

However, if you are taking a student loan, attendance of at least one workshop is required each academic year.

Workshops are limited to the first 50 people. You must sign up in advance by emailing financialaid@vvc.edu. You will not be allowed to enter more than 5 minutes late, so please show up on time. Please make childcare arrangements in advance, as children can not be allowed in the workshops.

Our Fall 2008 Financial Aid Workshop offerings are as follows:

Financial Aid Workshop: (Find out application tips, deadline dates, and an overview of what has changed. This workshop is beneficial whether you are new to VVC or planning on graduating and transferring to a university.)

Scholarship Workshop Part I: (Find out what Scholarships are, what are offered, the differences between internal and external scholarships, scholarship search tools, and much more!)

Scholarship Workshop: Part II: The Autobiography: (Nothing makes a student procrastinate more than the Autobiography. Also known as the Personal Statement, come find out what to include, where to go for assistance, and tips for saving you time!)

Money Management Workshop: (At this lively, interactive workshop, you will learn the basics of credit reports, identity theft, establishing and maintaining your credit, and other money management issues. Learn how to create a budget you can stick to, and still enjoy life at the same time!)

Student Loan Workshop: (This workshop is designed for students considering taking a loan, or as a refresher to those who have already taken one. You will learn about repayment options in terms of educational financing, the differences between a Stafford loan and a PLUS loan. We will also discuss the changes to the student loan program on the horizon, and how they affect you as a student loan borrower.)
